

Published in the July/August 2011 Issue

VOICE, Thurston County Chamber of Commerce

South Puget Sound Habitat for Humanity held their Dedication Celebration in June for the final four homes in the fifteen home Fairview Cottages, a high-density single-family home ownership community. Fairview is located within urban boundaries, is walking distance to elementary education and is on a mass transit line.